

PRAYER FROM THE IMITATION OF CHRIST

Thomas á Kempis penned The Imitation of Christ in the 15th century. This popular classic devotional book was originally written in Latin.

O Lord God, holy Father, be You now and forever blessed. For as You will, so it has been done; and what You do is good. Let Your servant rejoice in You, not in myself or in any other. You alone are my true joy. You are my hope and my crown. You are my gladness and my honor. O Lord, what has Your servant but what has been received from You without deserving it? Yours are all things that You have given and have made. Amen.
