Though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light. - Micah 7:8b

“Our lives must be woven around the Eucharist... fix your eyes on Him Who is the
light;
bring your hearts close to His Divine Heart;
ask Him to grant you the grace
of knowing Him,
the love of loving Him, the courage
to serve Him.
Seek Him fervently.”

St Mother Teresa of Calcutta
(Quote chosen to honor St Photina)

St Photina

Samaritan Woman at the Well

Convert, Evangelizer of the Faith, Martyr

Name meaning: “resplendent” or “shining with light”

Historical FEAST DAY - March 20

By the well of Jacob, O holy one, / thou didst find the Water / of eternal and blessed life; /
and having partaken / thereof, O wise Photina, /
thou wentest forth proclaiming Christ,
the Anointed One.

(Megalynarion for St. Photina, according to the Byzantine usage)

St Photina, pray for us - that we may have zeal for the faith!

A Day in history...

Nineteen years ago today I joyfully reconciled with the Catholic Church and in so doing enabled to fully partake of the Holy Eucharist, the Sacrament of Charity and Unity. Let us join in the holy endeavor of praying and living lives that speak of the power and love of our Eucharistic Lord - to come to know, love and serve Him more and more - and to draw many to the inexhaustible riches of His Sacred Heart.

"I will not rest until I find the whole world devoted to the Blessed Sacrament!" Bl. Didacus Joseph of Cadiz. Amen.
