

O, Lord, my portion...

The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
surely I have a delightful inheritance. - Psalm 16:6

"God, in His promises to hear our prayers,
is desirous to bestow Himself upon us;
if you find anything better than Him, ask it;
but if you ask anything beneath Him, you put an affront
upon Him, and hurt yourself by preferring to Him
a creature which He framed.

Pray in the spirit and sentiment of love,
in which the royal prophet said to Him,
'Thou, O Lord, are my portion.'

Let others choose to themselves portions among creatures,
for my part, You are my portion,
You alone I have chosen for my whole inheritance."

St Augustine of Canterbury*

Not to be confused with St Augustine of Hippo +605

Italian Benedictine monk sent by Pope Gregory the Great as missionary to England
First Archbishop of Canterbury
Patron of England

In a letter to Augustine, Pope Gregory the Great wrote:
"He who would climb to a lofty height must go by steps,
not leaps."

St Augustine of Canterbury,
pray for us!
