But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever - yes, for ever and ever. ~ Daniel 7:18

Solemnity of All Saints***

November 1

We are called to remember all of the saints, known and unknown, whose lives have served as holy examples for us.

"To become saints means to fulfill completely what we already are, raised to the dignity of God's adopted children in Christ Jesus..." ... "This, then, is the meaning of today's Solemnity: looking at the shining example of the Saints to reawaken within us the great longing to be like them: happy to live near God, in His light, in the great family of God's friends. Being a Saint means living close to God, to live in His family..." Pope Benedict XVI

"Saints of God, perfected in love and victorious over sin, who now enjoy the reward of adoring Our Lord face to face in everlasting JOY and GLORY:

Be gracious to remember us, flawed and failing, who still struggle on earth, who kneel here adoring Our Lord hidden in the tabernacle, who long for the day when we too will be made like Him and will see Him as He is.

Gather around us here in His Eucharistic Presence to strengthen us with your prayers and to enrich our feeble worship with the mighty chorus of your praise. Teach us by your example to love Him above all things, so that we too may become the pure in heart to see God, who enjoy with you the eternal blessed fellowship of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen."

"Make up your mind to become a saint."
~St Maria Mazarello

"Never say, 'What great things the saints do,' but,
'What great things God does in His saints.'" ~ St. Philip Neri

"The saints did not all begin well, but they all ended well." ~ St John Vianney

"O blessed souls, who knew so well how to profit by the gifts of God, and to purchase with this precious ransom so delectable and enduring a heritage, tell us how you won through Him such an eternal blessing!
Assist us, since you are so near the Fountainhead.
Draw water for those of us on earth who are perishing with thirst."

St Teresa of Jesus - Exclamations of the Soul to God, 13

During the Octave of All Saints' Day (Nov 1 thru Nov 8) any of the faithful, by devoutly visiting a cemetery and praying for the departed, can obtain a plenary indulgence (each day this is done), applicable to the poor souls in purgatory, (under the usual conditions for obtaining indulgences).
