

St. Anthony Prayer for Lost Things

Prayer for lost things as published by Catholic Answers. St. Anthony of Padua (1195–1231), Franciscan friar and Doctor of the Church.

Prayer to St. Anthony for Lost Things

St. Anthony, perfect imitator of Jesus, who received from God the special power of restoring lost things, grant that I may find (name the item) which has been lost. At least restore to me peace and tranquility of mind, the loss of which has afflicted me even more than my material loss. To this favor, I ask another of you: that I may always remain in possession of the true good that is God. Let me rather lose all things than lose God, my supreme good. Let me never suffer the loss of my greatest treasure, eternal life with God. Amen.

St. Anthony Miracle Prayer

O Holy Saint Anthony, gentlest of saints, your love for God and charity for His creatures made you worthy when on earth to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your word, which you were ever ready to speak for those in trouble or anxiety. Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to obtain my requests. (Here mention your intentions.)

The answer to my prayer may require a miracle; even so, you are the Saint of Miracles. O gentle and loving Saint, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petitions into the ears of the sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be enfolded in your arms; and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.

Prayer by St. Anthony of Padua

Lord Jesus, make of us good and fertile soil for the reception of the seed of your grace, and make it yield worthy fruits of penance, so that with Your help we may merit to live eternally in Your glory, who are blessed throughout all ages. Amen.
